ATHLETIC UPDATE

The Lions defeated Northeast Baptist School 26 – 6 on Saturday. The boys played an outstanding football game! The defense was awesome only allowing one score and had three turnover recoveries. Leading the way was Cody Eubanks with one interception and one fumble recovery. Seth Terral also had one interception. The offense provided some very decisive blows starting in the second half. The first play from scrimmage in the third quarter went 37 yards followed by a two-yard touchdown. The offensive leader was Kenji Wheeler with 7 carries for 73 yards, 1 reception for 42 yards and three touchdowns. Josh Ellis carried the ball 7 times for 100 yards and a touchdown. Chase Kinnison was 8/11 passing for 120 yards and a touchdown. Kudos to all the team for an outstanding effort!

Our Lady Lions won the volleyball match against Northeast Baptist. The scores were 25 – 16 UCA and 25 – 21 UCA!! Coach Sparks was very proud of the way the girls have started implementing the things learned in practice. Thanks to Amanda Arrington for helping to teach a new formation which was executed well by the team. We had a wonderful crowd and the gym was packed with UCA fans. Special thanks to David Byrnes, Scottie and Tammy White, Allen and Dimetra Akin, and Robbie Lawson for their help.

Join us this Friday in Camden to face Victory Christian in Camden. GOOD LUCK, LIONS!
